Advising Center
Take advantage of the knowledge and resources available in our advising center. Advisors can help you learn about program selection, course planning, transferring, and next steps after Edmonds CC. Advising can also help guide you towards campus resources that support your success. Advising is offered in a variety of ways at Edmonds CC, and you are encouraged to come in quarterly. Please go online for more information.

Center for Service-Learning
Get involved on campus and in your community. Enrich your learning experience by integrating meaningful community service with instruction and reflection. Our sponsored projects are a great way to volunteer with local community and on-campus partners. Make a difference and learn about environmental and social justice issues. Meet new people, build your resume, and serve the community — all while earning class credit (check with your instructor). Check online often; projects are added throughout the quarter.

Online Orientation
Set yourself up for success by taking a short, interactive online orientation. You’ll learn about academic pathways, options for paying tuition, campus resources, student life, student rights, and the next steps to help you on your educational journey. The orientation prepares you with college information and resources to help you succeed and reach your goals.

Student EdPass
An EdPass card offers a variety of opportunities for students. A student EdPass doubles as a library card, printing/copy machine card, bus pass, and prepaid campus cash card (FLEX Account). A student EdPass card also grants you student access to gymnasium facilities and bicycle sheds. Student EdPass cards are valid for two years from the date of issue. Bring your student/employee ID number. Also, bring a valid form of photo ID.

Counseling and Resource Center
Free, confidential, and professional counseling services, resources, and referrals are available to support the academic success, health, and wellbeing of our students and campus community. Are you dealing with personal issues that may impact your success as a student? Counselors are trained to be supportive, relate to others, and be sensitive to a client’s background and life experience. Staff can help connect you with the resources you need.

“Without the Learning Support Center, I don’t know where I’d be. I’m grateful and fortunate that Edmonds CC has individuals that are willing to reach out and give time to those in need.”
Library and Learning Commons

The college library can help you meet your educational goals. Library faculty and staff are ready to provide you with the services and resources you need to be successful.

At the reference desk, students receive assistance finding information and using the library’s wide range of print and electronic resources. Reference librarians offer workshops on basic and course-specific research skills.

The library and the learning commons offer:
- 24/7 research help through the Ask a Librarian link on our website
- 24/7 access to online databases of articles, films, ebooks, and more
- Selected textbooks and course materials on reserve for in-library use
- Technology including: 150 computers, laptops and chromebooks for checkout, graphing calculators, phone chargers, scanners/copiers, color printing
- Group computing space, presentation practice room, video lab
- Casual seating, individual study carrels, and large, well lit study tables
- Individual silent study zones and a silent computer lab
- Group study rooms

Services for Students with Disabilities (SSD)

SSD ensures that the college experience at Edmonds CC is accessible and usable by students with disabilities.

We support students with a variety of conditions:
- Deaf or hard of hearing, blind, or visually impaired
- Learning, mobility, or physical disability
- Chronic health, neurological, or mental health condition
- Injured students who are returning to school for retraining

The SSD staff works with each student individually to determine reasonable accommodations.

Honors Program

Pursue your intellectual and academic passions, work closely with a faculty mentor in guided research opportunities, and participate in a community of scholars in the Honors program. All students may apply.

As an Edmonds CC Honors student, you will:
- Follow your academic passions in research seminars, internships, and service learning opportunities;
- Enhance your transferability to four-year programs;
- Participate in small seminar-sized team-taught classes with other Honors students;
- Enjoy special cultural and social activities designed to create a close learning community and explore the relationship between your academic subjects and the world around you;
- Have specialized advising; and
- Receive Honors Recognition upon graduation. Earn a 3.2 grade point average (GPA) in Honors classes and the achievement will be noted on your college transcript.

Making Transitions

Transition to College Opportunities
For ESL, GED®, and Adult High School students
If you are enrolled in Adult Basic Education (ABE), English as a Second Language (ESL), GED®, or adult high school classes, you can receive the support to successfully take college classes.

Transition Case Managers
ABE/ESL: 425.640.1773

Preparation for College Programs
The ABE/ESL department offers upper level ESL classes that prepare students to take college courses. The curriculum focuses on general college readiness as well as preparation for study within specific college pathways such as allied health education and business. Tuition is $25. Students may also receive individualized navigation and support services as they prepare to transition into college level classes. You must be an adult immigrant, refugee, or U.S. citizen who speaks English as a non-native language to be eligible.

Paying for College

Financial Aid
Every person should have the opportunity to achieve educational goals, regardless of financial circumstances. Financial aid and scholarships help you offset college costs. Beat the deadlines! Certain funds are limited; complete your financial aid paperwork early.

Funds are awarded to eligible students based, in part, on the date the Financial Aid Office receives all required documents. Files must be completed by the deadline for the quarter you wish to begin.

Summer: June 1  Fall: July 15
Winter: Nov. 15  Spring: March 1
If you miss the deadline, you still may receive financial aid; it will just be delayed. You will have to pay for your own tuition and books and wait for your Financial Aid eligibility to be determined.

Worker Retraining
This program may provide tuition and book assistance for job training in professional/technical degrees and certificates if you are:
• facing imminent layoff or have been laid off;
• unemployed and exhausted unemployment benefits within the past four years;
• unemployed and without unemployment benefits that were exhausted within the past two years;
• a displaced homemaker;
• formerly self-employed, but now unemployed;
• a discharged veteran within the past four years;
• a temporary worker; or
• active duty military with notice of separation.

Scholarships

Edmonds CC Foundation Scholarships

Annual Scholarships – If you are a current or future student of Edmonds CC, you may qualify for scholarships based on financial need, academic success, and course of study. Scholarships are available to full- or part-time students. Complete just one application for multiple scholarships. Apply online during winter quarter for the following academic year.

Complete the Dream Scholarships – Don’t let an unexpected financial situation prevent you from completing your degree or certificate. If you have recently experienced an unforeseeable financial hardship that would prevent you from completing the last quarter of your program, you can apply for a one-time award to complete your goal.

The maximum amount awarded per student is the cost of one quarter’s tuition, fees, and books.
